Adapted version of the 2013 one of a kind book created by Elisabeth Parth, with ink drawings
by Michael W. Schneider, made and remained in Yalova/Turkey in the year of the Gezi Park protests.

With quotes from Mustafa Kemal Atatürk,
Recep Tayyip Erdoğan, Shirley Hayes, Jane Jacobs and Robert Moses.

Jane Jacobs
American-Canadian journalist, author & activist (1916-2006)

Trees.

Yalova, a city in the Northwest of Turkey, identifies with trees.
Mustafa Kemal Atatürk had a house moved to save a tree.
People have been fighting for the trees, of Washington Square Park in New York, of Gezi Park in Istanbul.

Positions and perspectives on nature, combined and transferred on media that are delicate themselves and delicate to use - delicate as nature.

Drawings
by Michael W. Schneider

Mustafa Kemal Atatürk
Founder and first president of the Republic of Turkey (1881-1938)

Robert Moses
American urban planner (1888-1981)

10 numbered & signed copies ISBN 978-3-900169-02-2

Plate lithography on delicate Mexican Amate bark paper handprinted by

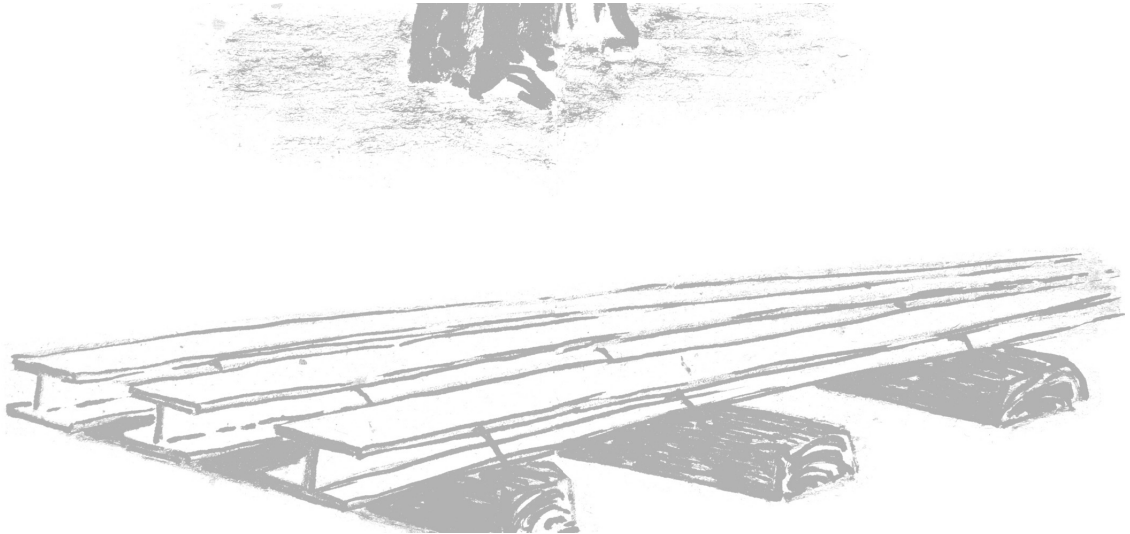
Satoru Itazu

Shirley Hayes
American activist
(1912-2002)



Recep Tayyip Erdoğan
Turkish politician
Born 1954 in Istanbul

'NOBODY IS AGAINST IT'

Yürüyen Köşk

A mansion moved 4 meters 80 centimeters on rails within 2 days by order of Mustafa Kemal Atatürk in Yalova in 1930 to avoid the cutting down of branches of a nearby age-old tree that were about to damage the mansion's roof.

Bound to delicate flexagons to be saved in a slipcase
by

Elisabeth Parth